

Mr. Joseph V. Tabone has until the 22nd April served as the founding Executive Chairman of the Malta Communications Authority. In conjunction with this, he has served and continues to do so on a variety of international Boards and the Commonwealth Secretariat. Prior to this, he held a succession of progressively senior positions in various organisations in North America and Europe as well as strategic national assignments in Africa and Asia. His particular area of expertise is in leading organisational transformation initiatives largely in the public, IT and telecommunications sectors.