Article 1

Meetings

1. CEPT decisions should be taken to the extent possible by correspondence.

2. The Presidency shall convene meetings of the Assembly in accordance with Article 6 of the Arrangement.

Invitations to physical meetings, together with the proposed agenda, shall be sent to the list of official e-mail addresses of Members and to the Assembly Distribution List three months in advance, with an invitation to Members to submit their comments on the agenda and their contributions within a period of one month. The agenda and the documents to be considered at a meeting should be available electronically on the Office server at least two months prior to the meeting. Paper copies of documents will not be provided, except in cases where a document was placed on the server less than three days before the start of a meeting (see also Article 5(2)).

Contributions submitted two months or more before the Assembly shall be made available in English, French and German.

a The Presidency should review the forward work programmes and retrospective deliverables of the three principal Committees. The Presidency should decide whether there are topics whose degree of common interest require consideration by a mechanism involving more than just one Committee.

These mechanisms might include:

- a joint meeting of two Committees,
- a joint sub-Committee of the two or three Committees
- an Assembly.

The Presidency shall report electronically to the Membership on the issue or issues concerned, and its proposed mechanism for addressing the matter concerned.

b The CEPT Membership may also propose the convening of an Assembly. A proposal may be sent to the Secretariat by one or more members setting out the justification, which will be circulated. Members may respond within 4 weeks expressing unequivocal support or opposition. An Assembly shall be convened if unequivocal support is expressed by more than 60% of the Membership.

The Secretariat may also publish tentative proposals from a member country for convening an Assembly, inviting countries which support the proposal to liaise with each other in order to produce a single consolidated multi-country proposal according to the formal procedure above.
3. The Members shall be seated in alphabetical order following the French names of the countries to which they belong.

4. The Committees shall be represented in the Assembly.

5. Representatives of the International Telecommunication Union and the Universal Postal Union shall normally be invited to participate at the meetings of the Assembly as observers. Other relevant organisations may be invited to participate in the meetings of the Assembly as observers when questions of interest to these organisations are being discussed. Observers may participate in the discussions but have no right to vote.

6. The European Commission and the Secretariat of the European Free Trade Association shall be invited to participate in the activities of the Assembly in an advisory capacity, with the right to speak but not to vote.

7. The Office will take the leading role in organisation of the Assembly, on the direction of the Presidency and provide Secretariat support to Assembly.

1. Administrations unable to attend a meeting where a vote is due to be taken may cast a vote by proxy. To be valid a proxy vote must be notified in writing to the Presidency in advance of the meeting, indicating which other Member has been given the proxy. No Member may cast more than one proxy on a particular vote.

2. The Presidency shall inform the Chairman about the written proxies received before the meeting.
Article 4

Vote

1. The validity of a vote is specified in Article 6 (4) and 6 (5) of the Arrangement.

3. Abstentions shall not be taken into consideration in calculating the majority. Nevertheless, if the number of abstentions exceeds half the number of votes cast, the question under discussion must be taken up again at a later meeting or by written procedure during which a decision shall be taken by simple majority except where the Arrangement provides otherwise or specific other provisions have been agreed.

4. At a physical meeting the vote shall be taken by a show of hands. Nevertheless a call-over vote may be taken if the Chairman so decides or if this is requested by a Member. Voting shall be in alphabetical order according to the French names of the countries which Administrations are represented at the physical meeting of the Assembly.
